CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The ASUM 2023 Scientific Committee is pleased to invite presenters to submit the abstracts for oral and poster presentations to be delivered at the 2023 conference to take place at the International Convention Centre, Sydney from 13 to 15 October 2023. Please follow our guidelines below to submit your abstract correctly.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION PORTAL

Ultrasound Intelligence

This year's theme is 'Ultrasound Intelligence', which aims to capture the multiple facets of ultrasound service, including the people and technology. The conference format intends to target key areas of ultrasound specialisation, while bringing together the multiple disciplines to share their intelligence. In addition, we are aiming to continue the learning looking forward to future of ultrasound, including artificial intelligence.

Submission Guidelines

Before commencing the submission process, please note:

- Online submission is the only method of abstract submission. Abstracts must be submitted in the template format provided by Oxford Abstracts.
- Whilst you can come back to your submission at any time (before the submission deadline ends), once you are finished with entering all the details, please ensure you proceed all the way to the end to complete your submission. Only completed submissions will be reviewed.
- Please note the title must not be written in all caps, but in sentence case only.
- Abstracts submitted for presentation will be published exactly as received and should be checked for spelling and grammar prior to submission.
- It is the responsibility of the presenter / author to ensure that the abstract is submitted correctly. An automatic acknowledgement email will be sent once your abstract submission is complete.
- Where there is more than one presenter all correspondence will be sent to the person who submitted the abstract. It is the submitting author's responsibility to ensure that all emails to do with the abstract are passed on to the presenting author, and any other relevant parties.
- Every effort will be made to accommodate the presenter / author presentation preference however the Scientific Committee reserves the right to allocate the presentation to best suit the program.
